

Anthony J. Smith

Associate

anthony.smith@icemiller.com

312 705 6018

Anthony Smith is an associate in Ice Miller's Litigation Group.

Anthony served as a judicial law clerk for Magistrate Judges Debra McVicker Lynch and Kellie M. Barr of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana.

He received his juris doctor from Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law, where he was a staff member of the Indiana International & Comparative Law Review. He also participated in the Robert H. Staton Intramural Moot Court Competition.

Education

- Indiana University – Bloomington (B.S., with high distinction, 2018)
 - Applied Health Science, Safety
- Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law (J.D., 2021)

Admissions

- Indiana
- United States District Court - Southern District of Indiana
- United States District Court - Northern District of Indiana

Professional Affiliations

- Indiana International & Comparative Law Review

Awards & Honors

- Robert H. Staton Intramural Moot Court Competition
- Phi Delta Phi - Willkie Inn

Services & Industries

- Construction
- Litigation

Key Matters

- Represented a contractor in a breach of contract and foreclosure of mechanic's lien dispute with a school district regarding the construction and integration of a security system.
- Represented an escrow/title insurance company in a dispute regarding the disbursement of construction loan funds to subcontractors pursuant to the construction loan escrow agreement.
- Assisted with representation of an owner in a breach of contract and mechanic's lien action regarding a subcontractor's performance of electrical work for a solar panel system project.
- Assisted with representation of an owner in a dispute regarding a plumbing and HVAC subcontractor's failure to perform certain exhaust ventilation work within its scope of work on a parking garage construction project.
- Assisted with representation of an owner regarding defective balconies constructed at an apartment complex project.
- Represented a homeowner in a dispute against a contractor that failed to perform under contract for the construction of a garage.
- Assisted with representation of a hydraulic lift subcontractor in a dispute for claim on public funds in connection with an Ohio Department of Transportation construction project.
- Represented condominium owners against a general contractor and subcontractor regarding defective roofing and HVAC systems.
- Represented homeowners against a contractor for breach of contract stemming from the contractor's misuse of payments intended for the clients' vacation home renovation project.
- Represented a housing authority against a contractor claiming amounts owed for various construction services performed at an apartment complex.
- Assisted with representation of a development authority in connection with a largescale public infrastructure project.

Published In

"Freedom of Expression and Social Media: How Employers and Employees can Benefit from Speech Policies Rooted in International Human Rights Law," Indiana International & Comparative Law Review, Vol. 32