Ariela Benchlouch is an associate attorney in Ice Miller's Business Group who brings a sophisticated understanding of corporate law, innovation, and technology. Specializing in the intricacies of mergers and acquisitions, private equity, venture capital, and joint ventures, Ariela guides clients through each phase of complex transactions. Her approach includes conducting thorough due diligence, managing risk assessments, drafting and negotiating key transaction documents, and navigating regulatory and compliance issues. She works closely with clients to develop tailored strategies, ensuring alignment with business objectives and a seamless transition from initial planning through to post-closing integration.

Her in-depth experience enables her to advise a diverse range of clients, from startups to established corporations, providing legal solutions that drive growth and value creation. Whether supporting a client's strategic acquisition, facilitating an investment round for an emerging growth company, or structuring a joint venture to optimize synergies, Ariela's insights and proactive approach contribute to successful outcomes.

Ariela further supports technology-focused clients, including online platforms and SaaS companies, by ensuring regulatory compliance for terms of use, privacy policies, service agreements, as well as all other transactional needs. Her pragmatic approach ensures her clients remain fully compliant while maximizing their business objectives.
