Gavin Canzanese is an associate in Ice Miller's Litigation group.

He earned his juris doctor from the Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law, where he served as president of the Villanova Law Intellectual Property Society. Gavin also participated in intellectual property clinics, where he worked directly with clients on patent prosecution, intellectual property strategy, licensing, and business-related matters. His clinical experience provided him with practical exposure to helping clients identify, protect, and strategically utilize their intellectual property while considering their broader business objectives.

While in law school, he served as an intern at Ice Miller in 2025 and 2026.
