

Jill Delaney

Director of Marketing

jill.delaney@icemiller.com

317 236 2149

Jill Delaney is an award-winning marketing leader with extensive experience in driving brand recognition, digital transformation, and revenue growth for businesses ranging from start-ups to global companies. In her role as Ice Miller's director of marketing, she oversees the firm's brand strategy as it pertains to print and digital communications, marketing and business development efforts, and events.

Before joining the team, Jill held several senior roles where she led digital marketing, e-commerce programs, brand communications, and cross-functional campaigns while directing multi-million-dollar budgets and high-performing teams.

Jill earned her Bachelor of Arts in Business and Journalism from Franklin College and completed the Advanced Management Program Certification through the EU Business School. She has been recognized with multiple industry honors, including the Red Dot Award for Product Design and the Conductor Women in Search Award.

Education

- Franklin College (B.A., 2005)

Awards & Honors

- Conductor Women in Search Award, 2022–2023
- Advanced Management Program Selection, 2021
- Red Dot Award Winner for Product Design, 2020

Certifications

- EU Business School Advanced Management Program Certification