Józef S. Przygodzki is Senior Counsel in Ice Miller's Business group where he focuses his practice on government contracts counseling, investigations, and litigation. He advises clients on all aspects of government procurement, including ethics and compliance in procurement and administration of state and local government contracts.

He is experienced in litigating bid protests before the Government Accountability Office, the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, as well as before state boards and agencies, as well as having litigated contractor claims before contracting officers, the Boards of Contract Appeals, and various federal courts. Additionally, Józef is knowledgeable on the False Claims, Forfeiture of False Claims Acts, Contracts Disputes Act and the Federal Acquisition Regulation.

Prior to joining Ice Miller, Józef served as associate general counsel for an online identity network company where he oversaw all legal matters related to digital identity verification services provided under federal and SLED contracts. He designed and implemented enterprise-wide business ethics and whistleblower programs, as well as developed internal compliance and audit processes to ensure adherence to federal procurement laws and regulatory regimes, including FAR and DFARS.

Józef earned his juris doctor, cum laude, from Georgetown University Law Center where he served as senior editor of the Georgetown Journal of International Law.
