Lisa Machado has more than 30 years of law firm and in-house legal experience across the United States, beginning her career as an office manager and patent assistant for a California-based law firm. As a patent paralegal in Ice Miller's Intellectual Property Practice Group, her primary focus is processing formality and non-substantive matters as they relate to U.S. and foreign patents and patent applications.

Prior to joining Ice Miller, Lisa served as a patent paralegal for an East Coast biotechnology company, where she was responsible for the coordination of foreign patent and trademark formality matters.
