Meghann Supino is a partner in Ice Miller's Business Group where she serves clients in a wide array of regulatory and business matters. Primarily, Meghann has focused her practice on regulatory compliance, international trade, and commercial agreements. She also has a background in commercial litigation. Meghann regularly advises clients on complex legal issues and regulatory compliance involving domestic and international trade, including but not limited to consumer product law, recalls, reporting to federal and state agencies, importing, exporting, and restrictions on international business. In addition, Meghann handles a variety of general business matters for domestic and international clients.

Meghann joined Ice Miller in 2013. Prior to coming to Ice Miller, her practice focused on complex commercial litigation and consumer product safety law. Since coming to Ice Miller, Meghann has continued to expand her practice in consumer product safety law, advising clients on their recall and reporting obligations to the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) and also assisting clients with other consumer product regulatory matters under the jurisdiction of the CPSC, Federal Trade Commission (FTC), Food and Drug Administration (FDA), Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), Department of Agriculture (USDA), and the Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS). Meghann regularly assists clients with reducing their regulatory risk exposure, such as through improvements to their advertising, product manuals, labeling, packaging, websites, warnings, and other materials. Meghann has presented and published articles on product safety law and is a member of the International Consumer Product Health and Safety Organization.

More broadly, Meghann's practice also includes advising clients on all aspects of the regulation, production and trade of consumer and industrial products. This includes international trade matters arising under the jurisdiction of the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), the Commerce Department (BIS), the Department of State (ITAR), the Department of Treasury (OFAC), the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS), and other federal and state agencies, as well as advising clients on compliance plans to reduce risk and comply with federal, state, and local regulations.

Meghann also acts as outside general counsel for domestic and international clients, directing and managing their legal needs and legal advisors around the world and in other specialized areas of law. Meghann also has experience in commercial and

Success Stories

Ice Miller Assists Milestone Partners in its Acquisition of FORTH

Ice Miller represented Milestone Partners, a Philadelphia-based private equity firm specializing in technology-enabled services, in its majority equity investment in Set Forth, LLC (FORTH). FORTH is a leading provider of technology and payment processing solutions for the consumer debt settlement industry and specialty finance markets.

Milestone Partners collaborates with niche, high margin businesses with a focus on the financial solutions and technology sectors. This strategic investment will give FORTH and the management team the support needed to continue executing their vision of delivering reliable and innovative technology and payment solutions tailored to the needs of their clients, consumers, and business partners.

The Ice Miller deal team was led by Brian Korman and Ben Goodman, with additional support provided by the firm's robust bench of attorneys from across our Philadelphia, Chicago, New York, Baltimore, Indianapolis, and Columbus offices.

Ice Miller has been active in the private equity industry for over 40 years, representing both management teams building great companies and the private equity firms and individuals that invest in them. We have acted as lead counsel in numerous domestic and international transactions. In the past five years, our attorneys have closed over 1,500 transactions worth in excess of $60 billion.
