Nancy Lane is a patent paralegal in Ice Miller's Intellectual Property Group. With more than a decade of experience, Nancy lends her knowledge to all aspects of prosecuting U.S. and foreign patent and trademark applications for the firm's clients and completing patent and trademark research for due diligence projects on behalf of the firm. She is passionate about being part of a collaborative and dynamic team with the goal of maintaining the accuracy and integrity of clients' applications.

Nancy previously served as a paralegal and docketing clerk at various law firms, where she managed the procedural aspect of patent applications including status reports, case, and portfolio management.
